

PRESS RELEASE

FOR RELEASE ON JULY 1, 2009

Courtney Cole Enters Race for the 121st House District

Warrensburg, MO— Today Democrat Courtney Cole has declared her intentions to run for State Representative in the 121st District. “Johnson County needs, and deserves, someone who will listen to its residents and take action,” Courtney Cole said. “As a mother, public school teacher and small business woman, I would be honored to be that person. Over the next 17 months I look forward to working hard to earn your vote.”

Courtney Cole lives in Warrensburg, with her husband, Jason Cole, and two-year-old daughter, Mackenzie. Both Courtney and Jason are educators living in Warrensburg. Courtney has been a teacher for 6 years. Jason is a professor at the University of Central Missouri in the Communications Department.

Courtney has always been actively involved in issues affecting our community. She is a member of the Warrensburg Chamber of Commerce representing her family-owned small business, Morgansites.com. She is a member of the National Education Association (NEA), National Rifle Association (NRA), and Mothers of Preschoolers- Warrensburg Chapter. For the past eight years, Courtney Cole has been a member of the Philanthropic Educational Organization (PEO), which focuses on providing educational opportunities and grants to young women. She has also been a member of the Business Professional Women’s organization for six years and honored as Missouri’s “Young Careerist “ in 2006.

Born and raised in Excelsior Springs, Missouri, Courtney has earned an Associate’s Degree in Journalism and Theater from Cottey College in Nevada, Mo. She graduated with Honors from the University of Saint Mary, with a Bachelor’s Degree in Secondary Education and Theater. She is also working towards her Master’s Degree in School Administration from the University of Central Missouri.

“I have traveled the district talking to key community leaders, both Republican and Democrat, and I have heard a common theme: partisan politics does not create more jobs, affordable health care and quality education,” said Courtney Cole. “They want someone who is real. Not one that says one thing in Johnson County and does another in Jefferson City. It’s time our community has a voice over big money politics.”

To learn more about Courtney and how you can get involved, please visit www.VoteCourtneyCole.com.

